Street Kids United to premiere at the Berlin Film Festival

1 February 2011

A brand new feature length documentary Street Kids United about the experiences of the South African team at last year's Street Child World Cup will receive it's world premiere at the Berlin Film Festival on Thursday 17 February.

The film follows the experiences of Amos partner Umthombo Street Children's football team as they took part in the first ever Street Child World Cup in Durban South Africa last March. The film will be shown as part of the Berlinale's Generation Kplus Strand at 3.00pm at the Haus der Kulturen Der Welt Kino 1.
